AUTHORITIES TO ARREST HUNTERS

Federal Law With Regards to Spring Shooting of Ducks Will Be Rigidly Enforced.

There will be no spring duck shooting, notwithstanding reports to the contrary sent out from various sources, declared Harry Barmer, Davenport, district inspector of United States migratory bird law, today.

This edict was issued by Mr. Bar-mer to offset reports that the federal migratory bird law would not be enforced and that hunters were getting ready for the spring migration of ducks, geese and other game birds.

While Mr. Barmer's territory only covers Iowa and Illinois he declares that the law will be enforced in all states and each and every violator arrested and prosecuted as fast as detected. A test case is now pending in the United States supreme court from Arkansas on the constitutionality of the federal law and this gave rise to the report that the law would not be enforced, says Mr. Barmer.

"But it will be enforced to the letter until such a time that it may be repealed or declared unconstitutional by the higher court," added the official.

The Day in Davenport

Home Robbed of Jewelry.—When Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Moorehead, 617 Kirkwood boulevard, returned from church services at 9:10 o'clock Sunday night they found that their home had been entered and robbed of jewels and money of the value of at least $500.

Diamonds and other stones were numbered among the stolen goods. The home was entered by means of a "jimmy" used to pry a window. The robbers went through the house and took everything of value, including a purse with $50 in currency in it. It was evident from the appearance of the house that the robbers had waited their time to do the job and had taken ample time in performing it. Evidently they had waited until Mr. and Mrs.
Moorehead had gone to church, being acquainted with their habits, and then entered the house.

Goes to Baldwin Concern.—Jacob Kastlin, general manager of the Davenport Locomotive works, has resigned his position with that company to accept a high position with the Baldwin Locomotive works, Philadelphia.
Mr. Kastlin will leave today for Philadelphia to assume his new duties. Mr.
Kastlin will be inspector of locomotives and will be identified with the consulting engineer's department. He has just returned from Philadelphia where he had been in consultation with the heads of the eastern company.

Ox-Hydrogen Co. Elects Officers.— The Bettendorf Ox-Hydrogen company held its annual meeting Saturday and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows:

President—Edwin J. Bettendorf.
Vice president—T. J. Walsh.
Secretary and treasurer—J. Reed Lane.

Assistant secretary-treasurer and manager—A. J. Russell.

The above and Dick Lane constitute the board of directors.

Reports showed that the company had had to double its capacity during the past year, and now is running at near the capacity.

Confiscate Liquor and Dice.—Six cases of beer, half a gallon of whiskey and cards and poker chips and dice were confiscated by police in a raid on a shanty on city island, opposite the Glucose Sunday night. John Hansen, charged with being the keeper, and Emil Ackerson, Maurice Hamm, Ed Long and Lew Crone, were taken as inmates. Officers Kaiser and Thompson made the raid. Complaint had been made by residents of the section of the place alleged to be conducted by Hansen. It was known as "Gimlet House" and the men had come to it frequently. When hearing came up Hansen was not present and his bonds of $15 were forfeited. The other were questioned as to the place and they claimed that the beer belonged to them individually. "You are in direct violation of the law," said Magistrate Roddewig. "If it is legal you to conduct such a place it is also legal for a saloon to be in business and keep cases of beer for 'friends and acquaintances.' This is the first case of actual violation since the prohibition law went into effect. Magistrate Roddewig said he would take this matter up with the levee commission and ask that the place known as 'Gimlet House' be removed and the tenants vacated. They were instructed to leave the place by the magistrate yesterday.

Smallpox Cases.—Two cases of smallpox were reported by the board of health yesterday. They are Elizabeth M. Brandt, 704 Rock Island street, and Ellen Bloom, 824 East Fifteenth street.

Obituary Record.—W. F. Cleveland, of Harlan, Iowa, one of the best known of Iowa democrats and one of the most prominent Masons in the state, died last night at his home in Harlan, following three months' illness. Heart failure was the cause of death. The deceased was 71 years of age.

Harry B. Horne passed away at his home, 1712 Iowa street, at 8:00 o'clock Sunday evening, following an illness of about a year with Bright's disease. Mr. Horne was born in Great Falls, N. H., Nov. 18, 1852. In 1869 the family moved to Davenport. While in the employ of the Rock Island road he made his home in Washington, Iowa, but since his retirement he has been residing in Davenport. He was a member of the Zerepath consistory of Davenport and the Blue lodge Masons and Knight Templars of Washington. Jan.
20, 1876, the deceased was united in marriage with Miss Ida Sheffield, who survives to mourn his death. Two brothers, Lannie Horne of Minneapolis and D. B. Horne of Davenport, also survive.

The funeral of Leo Badger, who died Saturday at Mercy hospital after a three years' illness, was held yesterday from the family home, 716 East Sixth street. Services were conducted at St.
Anthony's church. The deceased was born in Davenport April 27, 1888, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Badger. He was educated at St. Anthony's parochial school. In addition to his parents one sister, Margaret, and one brother, Theodore, survive him.

Sunday evening at 8:08 o'clock at her home, 1318 West Second street, occurred the death of Mrs. Margaret Peterson after a lingering illness. The deceased was born in New Husam, Oldfeldt, Germany, on Aug. 24, 1832, being 83 years of age. September 23, 1856, she was united in marriage with Jansen Peterson, the couple coming to America and direct to Scott county in 1858, having resided here ever since. Mr.
Peterson passed away in 1897. Five children, Claus H. Peterson at home, falo, with five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren survive to

NEWS NOTES from MOVIELAND

Right on the heels of a remarkable combination of star features is the general release late this month of De Wolf Hopper in the picture play version of "Don Quixote," by Cervantes.

As Billie Burke is undoubtedly the biggest woman legitimate star sponsored by the Triangle, so Hopper is the most prominent male player taken from the American stage for film productions. Interest in "Don Quixote" is doubled by the appearance of the big comedian and the first pictorial presentation of the Spanish classic.

The popular William S. Hart is joined with Hopper in the closing February releases. A powerful western play called "Hell's Hinges" is the medium in which this favorite actor is presented. Real spectacle is provided by the burning of an entire town. Ince has given his star a well balanced cast.

Kitty Gordon Still Looks Young.
Director Frank Crane has completed at the Paragon studios the picture "As in a Looking Glass," in which Kitty Gordon makes her World film debut. Everyone who has seen test runs of this film is enthusiastic over the way Miss Gordon "screens."

She is declared to be an absolute vision of loveliness and to stand the inexorable "close-up" as well as of any girl in her teens.

Five-Year-Old Star Temperamental.
Little Jane Lee, the 5-year-old William Fox star, who has a prominent part in the million dollar Annette Kellermann picture now being produced at Kingston, Jamaica, under the direction of Herbert Brenon, is as temperamental as any of the Broadway stars who are many years her senior. Jane says: "At times it is just impossible for me to act, and at others I can act with almost no effort at all." She ascribes her varying dispositions, however, to the amount of, or lack of, trouble she has with her various pets before beginning her day's work.

Edith Storey, the popular Vita- graph star, had just finished work in De Wolf Hopper.

Most women will like to see De Wolf Hopper in his first screen appearance late this month. The famous comedian has been married four or five times, and it will be interesting to see what there is about him that makes him so fascinating.

a picture in which she played the part of a society belle, when Director George D. Baker handed her a manuscript to read that cast Miss Storey as a shop girl, who has many thrilling adventures on an ocean liner.
Edith is so used to these quick changes that she never stops to wonder what is coming next.

Mme. Petrova, the distinguished Metro star, was born in Poland, married in Indianapolis, got her stage training in London and Paris, and has achieved her greatest success in New York, on both the screen and stage.

AT SPENCER SQUARE.
"The Precious Packet" is the title of the picture to be shown tonight at the Spencer Square. The story of the play was written by Fred Jackson and treats of the adventures of a young Englishman, who, having lost his all at the race tracks and is about to commit suicide, is sent under the auspices of "The Younger Son," an organization of the younger sons of British nobles, to perform in America a mission unknown to himself. He is intrusted with a secret packet which is not to be opened until a certain date and which is to enlighten him as to what is expected of him.

AT THE ILLINOIS.
The Capital Producing company, of New York struck something good in its musical comedy called "Seven Hours in New York," produced last season.
From the first performance it is announced, success has perched on the banner of this venture. Business has been surprisingly good and the audiences, managers and newspapers have voiced their approval of the offering in no uncertain way. There is a steady stream of requests for return dates, and managers voluntarily write or wire ahead of the company sincere endorsement of the performance. There isn't the slightest "off-color" act or suggestion in the entire performance, which is in itself a passport to favor.
The songs, of which there are 18, are all new and fit into the action of the play, which is the English manner, and a commendable feature of the performance. With the big original company and chorus, "Seven Hours in New York" will be seen at the Illinois Thursday night.

In the matter of garb, "My Home Town Girl," in which Hyams and Mc-Intyre will appear at the Illinois theatre next Saturday evening, is the last word, not only in theatrical costuming but in modern dress—an exhibit of feminine finery that eclipses any of the international fashion shows that are the vogue. It is a perfect riot of the advanced fashions which women term "dreams" and, in the matter of extravagance, the men interested look upon as financial nightmares. The costumes are a happy illustration of the fact that women's stage clothes do not have to be daringly indecent to be strikingly beautiful. They are the highest achievement in the adornment of lovely women, and fit charmingly with the beautiful scenic investiture of the piece. When is added Frank W.
Stammers masterful work in staging the musical numbers, a prima donna who is an artist, the two favorite stars, other capable principals and a chic and generally entrancing chorus, there is little more to be said than that the production is an artistic achievement in musical comedy.
